Ticket sales are still lagging. We need to sell a lot more tickets to cover the cost of buying the guns.

Corey will try to sell tickets at Louis Corners Swap Sept 26, 2010 Louis Corners has offered us a site at no charge.

Corey asks that you bring your monies for sold tickets to the October 17 meeting as the raffle begins November 1, 2010

A culvert on Mark Roehrig's land was inspected and repaired for the upcoming season.

New Business:

A motion was made to change our by-laws to state our annual meeting will be held on the third Sunday in September instead of the first Sunday in September. Motions were approved.

Election of officers:

Nomination for President Travis Halfmann, Vice President Corey Bratz, Secretary Wayne Miller, Treasurer Rich Halfmann, Board Members Wes Rabe, Larry Dietz, Earl Manz

All nominations were voted in to their respective offices.

Trail Captains:

Discussion on having an assistant trail captain to help with duties or answer questions in the captain's absence

Travis will have Mark Roehrig and Eric Jens as assistants. Dave Lautenschlager will assist Larry Dietz Al and Gerry Trutschel have worked together for years. Earl has had help from his sons and wife for many years.

A workday has been set for November 6, 2010 Wayne will send out notice.

All easement must be collected by December 1, 2010

A trail will be marked to Badger Creek Golf Course and will link to our state trail and Louis Corners will make a link to their trail.

Several members will attend a Calumet Snowtrails Meeting and ask for input on the Calumet Trail Map.

Wes has approached several New Holstein businesses to see if there would be interest in a trail that would go to Kwik Trip and give access to several other businesses in that immediate area. The business contacted would like a trail to that area. The trail was approved by the planning committee and will go to a city council meeting soon for final approval. The landowners involved have been contacted and have given permission to cross their land. Businesses will be asked for money to help with trail marking and preparation.

Rich reminds members the new club year starts September 19, 2010 and dues should be paid to keep in good standings.

Meeting adjourned 8:25 pm.

Respectfully submitted,
Wayne Miller
KSC Secretary
